Early-career cybersecurity professional with two years of experience in a junior analyst role supporting vulnerability management and security operations. Eager to develop technical skills further and contribute to a team environment. Familiar with common security tooling and basic network concepts.

Experience

Cybersecurity Analyst · Broadridge Financial Solutions

2022 – 2024

Assisted the security operations team with vulnerability scanning using Qualys and triaging alerts from the SIEM platform. Helped document remediation steps for low- and medium-severity findings and updated the internal ticketing system with patch status. Participated in quarterly phishing simulation exercises and supported basic security awareness communications to staff.
